

QUALIFICATIONS

NEWTECH Resources provides electrical, mechanical, civil and structural engineering, technical support, and project supervision for projects in the petroleum, natural gas, telecommunications, alternative energy, and pharmaceutical industries.

Experienced, and Multi-Disciplined

NEWTECH's staff includes experienced project managers, construction managers, electrical, mechanical, petroleum, instrumentation, civil, structural, telecommunications, industrial, and cost scheduling engineers. We also have a land, right-of-way, and permit acquisition staff.

Proven Success

NEWTECH's personnel have successfully completed hundreds of projects during their professional careers. These projects included economic evaluation studies, development of design criteria, preliminary engineering, and complete system design. The work included development of specifications, procurement of equipment, bidding, permitting, and construction management.

Facility Experience

NEWTECH's work experience includes projects involving the following types of facilities:

- Airport fueling
- Alternative energy
- Electronic manufacturing
- Enhanced oil recovery
- Clean rooms
- Commercial and industrial
- Hydro-electric power
- Telecommunications
- Oil and gas pipelines
- Oil and gas production
- Oil refineries
- Petroleum marketing terminals
- Pharmaceutical
- Power plants and cogeneration

*Extensive Experience
in Operations*

NEWTECH's staff has extensive experience within the manufacturing, utility, and commercial industries. Engineering and design criteria are based on a strong understanding of practical and maintenance procedures.

Commitment to Professionalism

NEWTECH's commitment to professionalism is demonstrated by our innovative approach to engineering and design and the quality of our service.